Tunnel Into Broadway Loft, but Huge Steel Safe Bars Their Progress.

FOUR MEN CAPTURED.

Detectives Hide in Bread Line at Culmination of Seven Weeks' Shadowing.

A $50,000 burglary on Broadway was foiled to-day by detectives from the Central Office, and four old-time criminals were caught as they operated on a coale almost as daring as that used Detectives Mugge, Toner, Gaynor, Belliy and Talt, trailing the four suspects, came together in front of No. 22 Broadway, just across the street from the St. Dents Hotel. The crooks were Samuel Stein, alias "The Senator:" Sebert Davis, Henry Baker, alias "Diahem Goldberg," and Abe Botnick.

Stein, who is twenty-six years old, and has the appearance of a successful young business man, led the quartetts and rented a large loft on the second fibor of the building from the sagent t. Bass. He said that the place was to be used for business purposes and that he would begin to move in his stuff right off.

No time was lost. Trucks came up with loads of boxes and a steamer trank. The boxes were empty and were its have been used in carrying off the isset. In the trunk were two huge jimmids, braces and bits, picks, hammers and tools enough to have torn down the shole building.

HUGE SAFE BLOCKED MOUTH OF TUNNEL THROUGH WALL. An error was made, however, in cal-culating the right spot for the tunnel, culating the right spot for the tunnel, and toward morning the burglars found that a soild wall of iron confronted them. It was the back of the big safe used by the feather firm. As the safe would hide the end of the tunnel from the feather amployees it was decided to call off the job for the time and tackle it again to-night.

At 6 o'clock this morning the janitor eponed up the building at No. 813, and a few minutes after Davis, Baker and Botnick appeared on the sidewalk and joined Stein. The detectives arrested the four men and took them direct to Police Headquarters.

Inspector Faurot, in charge of Central

Davis was found to be No. 629 in the gallery, had served prises terms and was even then out under suspended sentence. Baker is No. 11.25 in the gallery and has been convicted for burglary several times.

Botnick claimed that he was a fruckman with a good business and displayed his business card with the address No. 14 East Eighth street; but the gallery gave him No. 7,165 among the rogues of record.

Inspector Faurot and Daputy Commissioner Dougherty were highly pleased over the success of the long shadowing, and are confident that they will send the four men to prison for long terms.

At Hurnside the depot was unroofed and neveral houses blown away, Several were hurt there, but none fatally. In Boyle County tobacco and stock barns were wrecked and much live stock killed, The wind guage at the Weather Bureau in this city showed a velocity of seventy-five miles, the highest ever ecorded here.

DETROIT. Mich., March 21.-All of Michigan trembled under the force of an eighty miles an hour gale which swept the State early to-day and at noon con-tinued unabated. Wires to every section the meagre flashes which were sent be-fore the storm hit with full force it is mown that the damage is universal throughout the State.

Scores of persons were injured in De troit, but at noon only one fatality had been reported. A part of the roof of the Hotel Charlevolx was swept off, unfin-ished buildings were blown down, burying workmen in the wreckage, signs were ripped from the downtown stores and flying missiles filled the streets. Over half a nundred persons were in jured by flying glass or falling signs.

Street car service was demoralized, many of the outlying sections being completely cut off from the city.

The Detroit River was turned into a raging sea. A ferryboat plying between this city and Windsor, Ont... vas caught in mid-stream and up to a late hour to-day had been unable to
